

Advanced Standing

Advanced standing may be granted to transfer students from other colleges or post-secondary schools, applicants with credit for lifelong learning and those who have shown proficiency in specific subject areas through standardized examination programs.