

ARTS 1505 : Contemporary Craft History

A survey of the important themes, artists, and objects (including glass, ceramics, metalworking, fibers, woodworking, and textiles) of 20th century American craft. Social issues and historical factors affecting the evolution of contemporary craft production will also be examined.

Credits 3.0

Semester Offered

fall/spring

General Education Areas

The Arts Gen Ed; Humanities Gen Ed