

ECED 1110 : Introduction to Early Childhood Education

Survey of early childhood education theories and principles and the alternative settings available for the care and education of young children. Emphasis on defining program quality as it pertains to developmentally appropriate care and other characteristics of the child care environment. Lecture/projects/field assignments and/or observations.

Credits 3.0

Semester Offered

As Needed