

HUSR 1000 : Achievement Motivation

Experience and learn what achievement motivation is, how much of it an individual has, and how to increase it. Experience defining and setting goals through games, simulated life experiences, a programmed text, and individual and group activities. Opportunity to learn about self and to experience how sharing human resources allows for personal growth. Usually taught on weekends. Lecture/group activities. Course fee.

Credits 3.0

Semester Offered

fall/spring