

HUSR 1590 : Work with Child & Youth at Risk

Provides an overview of the factors creating risk for children and youth in the family and society, and the individual characteristics of risk and resilience in children and youth. Includes children and youth at risk in education, for substance abuse and addiction, crime and delinquency and other topics. Strategies and issues for prevention and intervention.

Credits 3.0

Semester Offered

As Needed