

Introduction

These policies and procedures will guide and benefit you as you proceed through your studies. This section is arranged alphabetically for your convenience.

Consult the Enrollment Advisement Center (EAC) for assistance with interpretation of these policies. In matters where an educational judgment is necessary, the Enrollment Advisement Center or the appropriate Associate Dean can provide clarification. If you should disagree with the interpretation which you receive, the final source of appeal is the VP of Academic Affairs. Please ask questions about any policy which concerns you.
