

Introduction

Corning Community College offers support services to help applicants find areas of study best suited to their interests, aptitudes, and abilities. Those who have previously done well in school can expect challenge and growth at SUNY CCC. Those who may need assistance developing reading, writing, or mathematics skills will find support and services are available here to help build the foundation which leads to success in college.