

ARTS 2220 : Advanced Photographic Communications

An introduction to recent photographic history and theory. Advanced photographic printing and exhibition techniques will be emphasized, culminating in a public exhibition of student work. Lecture/activity. Upper-level course. Students must have their own cameras and photographic supplies; rental cameras are available through the College. Darkroom facilities will be made available. Course fee.

Credits 3.0

Semester Offered

fall/spring